

FCC Worship Team Prophetic Words and Dream Interpretations

All of these have had an impact on who we are today and we believe they have keys to where we are headed. Spend some time with these and share your thoughts. We look to build a strong and unified vision!

- February 2011 -

This is the first and is just a summary of a lengthy word given to Jeremy from Pat Holloaran (much of it was for him personally, so we have not included it all)

We should be singing our own songs, we (worship team) must have purity on the platform, they (team members) must have a right lifestyle, they (team members) must, without exception, honor the leadership, they (team members) must choose not to play for people but for the Lord, worship needs to get the new sound, university age to mid 20's swarm is coming - get ready.!

- April 2013 Jennifer Saglimbeni (dream) -

Jeremy and I were trying to go to bed and our bedroom was on our back porch which is a very open place- you can even see it from outside our front door. There were people coming in and out of our house-we let them, some even had keys, they weren't close friends, just acquaintances. Our children were there but there was no concern for privacy with them.

This dream was interpreted for the whole church but in light of some recent dreams and other words, I believe it applies to the worship team today. The worshippers went before, as we grow in this, it will overflow to the house.

Interpretation by Cliff and Marie Weeks for the dream above-

The house symbolizes Freedom Christian Center. The Doors were glass, front and back. Which symbolize, transparency and able to view the whole house. The place where we as a church, currently. People come in and out; they don't stay or become committed. The "key" is that we are not close with them. It is not a problem of people coming in and out. But there is no privacy, no rest for those of us who are. It is hard to become intimate when people just come in and out of the church. We need the protection of the Lord and Intimacy with one another so that we can be transparent and be covered by the Lord when these people come in and out. And hopefully will want to stay because of the Love, transparency and covenant we have with one another. It reminded me of the word Mike Bickel said that God is calling us to be like Jonathan. The children symbolize the prophetic, which I believe means, the activity will in no way stop the flow of the prophetic. This is good dream and we need to pray for one another as a body to be covered by the Holy Spirit.

- December 2013 (Bridget Hauert) -

I had a dream last night in Jerusalem and in the dream, Adam and I were in Melbourne attending a church service at your church. While worship was going on, there was forward motion in the youth-- revival started to increase as we worshipped. As we worshipped more, the number of young people increased in the place. It was as though the sound and duration of worship was causing young people to appear in the place and worship Jesus. You started to speak shortly after worship and the fire of The Lord fell and youth were being encountered by God. More and more of the youth were being set free and started to extravagantly worship God through dance. These were teens that never danced before The Lord before and thought it was strange previous to this service. The place was shaken by the sound of worship coming forth in dance, song, and word.

• Sharon Otero December 2013 -

I know Eddie Tucker had a word the night that we had the Arsenal gathering, particularly for those involved in worship. (It had to do with a new sound and/or new levels, I think.)

Prior to him giving the word I felt like I had a word to be directed to those involved in the worship ministry as well. Just the way the evening played out, however, the opportunity to share that word passed (or I missed it). But in light of this dream this seems like a good time to share the word.

I felt that those involved in the praise and worship ministry REALLY need to pay attention to their walk with God. Being involved in this ministry is not simply about having a good voice or being a skilled musician; it's a huge responsibility to be used of God to help usher the Body into the presence of the Lord. I felt those involved in this ministry must exercise great care, caution and wisdom regarding their personal walk with the Lord. They must be mindful of what they allow their eyes to see and their ears to hear. If they are already doing this, then it's time to bring it up a notch. If they are not already doing this, it's really time to bring it up a notch. I believe God desires a new level of holiness and purity of heart of those serving Him in this area. When I was hearing the Lord's heart in all this, I sensed the seriousness of what He was saying. It matters.

It's not about following a bunch of rules and regulations that will bring about greater purity. It's not about "trying harder". It's about guarding their hearts while pursuing greater intimacy with the King. It's about the whole Ephesians 1:17-19 thing---that spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him....and knowing that His grace is what will enable them to do/be different.!

So, as I read this dream, I see just how powerfully the Lord wants to use worship to impact lives--hearts...To bring people into the Kingdom, to set captives free.... For me, I see the connection between Eddie's word, this dream and what I felt the Lord showed me.

• December 2, 2013 Sharon Otero -

Just had another thought as I was praying into this dream: as the hearts of those serving on the worship team become more purified, the worship itself becomes more purified. Then you know how "they" say that today's young people despise hypocrisy and phoniness and that they long for authenticity (in word and action)? Well, as the worship becomes more pure, the young people will sense the purity and authenticity of it and be drawn to engage in it and, voilà--forward motion!

January 26, 2014 Sharon Otero

Worship in the house of freedom has entered into a new place. A new level. A greater depth of worship. Higher ground. We are touching something deep in the heart of God. The worship team has tapped into a rich vein and is powerfully extracting the treasures...the gems... and presenting them back to the King. He is pleased!

July 2014 Jennifer Saglimbeni (dream interpretation)

We had a gathering in our home for the worship team. (which is something we do at least a couple times of the year) I remember seeing a bit of the party but can't remember. Felt it was our house but it wasn't... it was a very elegant place with lots of dark wood and deep red velvet carpet/furnishings. We had served red wine and I felt like I'd had a bit, I spilled some on the floor as I was cleaning up, thought to myself I need to look up one of those tricks I've heard about to clean red wine off of carpet. I went to the kitchen and set some things on the counter, Jeremy came behind me and said something that I felt would be inappropriate (flirtatious?) if there were others there, at that moment I thought someone was down the hallway so we went into what looked like a den. Tony Hauck was in the far corner in a chair there was a side table in between him and another seat with Rebecca King, Andrew was there too. On the side table were 5 bottles of Corona Beer... We were offered one but politely declined but enjoyed a nice visit, there was a tv on with a lighthearted show.

-interpretation by cliff and Marie Weeks

I don't think this was your house, but the church. I got from this dream that the wine has to do with the wine of the spirit. And there will be a overflow on the floor. Because of the wine it will bring a joy to you and Jeremy that he flirts with you. The Joy of the Lord's presence will be even felt on your marriage. I think there is a bit of a warning that other believers who are into worship, will choose cheaper ways of entertaining themselves to find the presence of the Lord. But good thing is that you both declined the cheaper substance and did not feel pressured to try the cheap stuff. Also, it is kinda sad because there will be those who won't choose the river of God's joy. We need to pray for the body. May they come into that Joy and Unity as we will and may we not be offended if they choose the cheap stuff. May we find Joy in the wine and let it spill to overflow !!! Amen !

The new wine is in the House of FCC and you can feel how God is using the worship team to usher that Joy in the House ! May it overflow all over the place and get messy for the Joy is good and expensive price !!!

January 21,2015 – Sharon Otero

The first few lines are edited because they were directed more for Jeremy and Jennifer than for the whole team but we wanted to share the general idea so you can understand the rest better.

(Jeremy) is going to be a father over the worship team-

You need to make plans for having a large team -for when we grow to 3 or 4 deep.

Planning-strategies for large and complex team-someone sharp to coordinate

(Jeremy and Jennifer) Praying for the hearts of those on the team

Times of meeting together and confession of sin and repentance, that will draw your hearts together and it's going to create something in worship that is going to be extremely powerful.

When you have a team that is willing to bear their souls to one another in humility, confess( I was gossiping, had a crummy attitude or whatever that may be) there's humility in that, and it's going to be a working out of the flesh which is going to bring you into a place of the spirit that's going to impact the people out here, and help bring them to a higher place in the spirit..... You want to build that community..... I feel like the preparation is going to be a crash course, hard fast and intense. I'm feeling like 6 months, is going to be intense but it's going to be ongoing training. It's going to be this beautiful thing you guys are going to have up there with the team, I think it's going to be an example of unity to the people that watch that see. It's going to be something that they can't put their finger on but those that have eyes to see will be able to understand what it is. It's going to be something precious and I think it's going to be a catalyst for doing something deeper out here in the congregation. That the unity that you guys have, as diverse as the personalities are going to be, there is going to be a oneness of heart, purpose and mind that really is what God is striving for, and that is going to be the witness to the world out there, that sense of unity. I feel like God just really wants to use the worship team as a platform to show the body of Christ here and I think pastor tim is going to call you guys out and make mention of it. Some way somehow.

January 25, 2015 Pastor Tim

I just want to say over you there something really good happening on this team right now. You're in a very very it's good place, Gods incredibly happy with your hearts and with what you desire to give him. I just sense there's a real camaraderie areal cohesion taking place among you. It's not just about a voice or a gift but it's about what God is after and so I just want to say thank you on behalf of these folks out here and for God, just appreciate your hearts, I love you.